Contestants prove their mettle

THE 9th Miss & Mr. Teen India - 2005, an I.Q and Personality Contest, organized by Alee Club, Rohini, was held last week which ended in a grand finale. Present on the occasion were former Bollywood actress Rati Agnihotri and director and actor Vivek Vaswani.

There were three rounds in the contest and for each round participants were given a different theme according to which they wore different wardrobe in every round. First round was 'introduction round' inclusive of 'fashion choreography' in which students showed their modeling skills. Dress code was formal wear. After the introduction round the numbers of participants was reduced to eight girls and eight boys.

In second round, participants faced judges' questions. The panel consisted of former Femina Miss India, Miss Asia